

Teen Dating Violence Crossword

Complete the crossword puzzle below to learn about teen dating violence!

Down:

1. Any relationship that is characterized by equality, respect, trust, accountability, communication, etc.

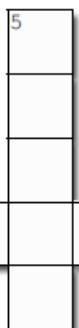

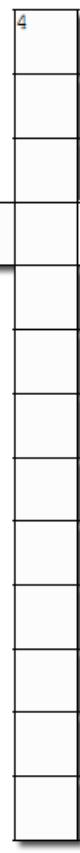

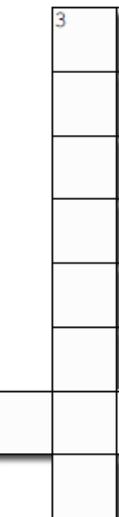

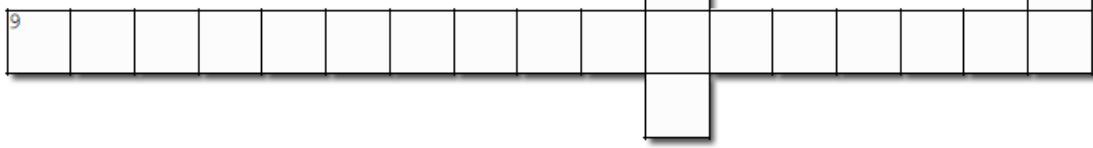

3. Any behavior in a relationship that serves as a "warning sign" for an unhealthy relationship.

4. The way in which people handle the impact of trauma, loss, hurt, or challenging feelings.

5. When someone tries to take power and control over another person by using a form of violence.

6. Any behavior in a relationship that serves as a sign of a healthy relationship.

8. When someone intentionally harms or mistreats someone else through force, intimidation, pressure, or fear.

Across:

2. The ability to cope with and recover from life's challenges.

7. When one person in a teen relationship tries to take power or control over another person using physical, sexual, emotional.

9. A pattern in which those who are hurt by violence may also act violently and/or hurt others